

HELLO AGAIN

VOL. 24 NO. 6

NOV – DEC 1993

A PERSONAL NOTE: I hope everyone has a very happy holiday and prosperous New Year...I am trying to locate Wayne Kozak, 2406 Orchard Ter., Linden, NJ 07036. Letters and phone calls haven't had any response. I need to reach him.

ULTIMATE LOG: Flyer for the supplement is enclosed. Most of the new shows in circulation list the initial source. Other traders and dealers may have them by the time you get the supplement.

CONVENTION 1993: Special souvenir pens and convention booklets are still available. They are $2 each.

CONVENTION 1994: Dates are October 20 – 22 at the Holiday Inn North. Our planning meeting is a Sunday to be chosen in January or February. The meeting will be held at the Holiday Inn. If you have any ideas or would like to come to the meeting, please let me know. Let me know whom you would like to receive the Allen Rockford Award. If you would like to do a workshop or panel or direct a re-creation, let me know soon.

Some people have suggested having the convention somewhere else. If you can come up with a place that does everything we do (3 days, 3 banquet meals, coffee and muffins all three days, hors d'oeuvres, near an airport, people you can count on, etc.) for a price comparable to what we have now, please let me know.

Laugh is an excellent comedy magazine with much radio-related material. The cost is $4 an issue. It is written by Peter Tatchell, 40 Bambra Rd., Caulfield, Victoria, Australia 3161. Peter has been researching classic radio and television shows from the U.S. and Britain for 20 years and has many logs of name performers which I hope will be made available. Seven issues of Laugh are available now. Each issue has logs and discographies. Peter is also looking for any recordings of W. C. Fields radio appearances. He wants to date the LP tracks for a future article in Laugh.

Radio Listener's Lyceum (RLL) is a Cincinnati area OTR club with an excellent newsletter called RLL On The Air. Each issue has articles at different times by Joel Senter, Bob Burnham, Jack Rothwell, George Wagner and Robert Newman, the President of the club. At this time, there is no charge for this bi-monthly newsletter but Robert would welcome ads to help offset the cost. Full Page ads are $20 (7/12 by 10) down to business card size for $7.50. For information write Robert Newman at 11509 Islandale Dr., Forest Park, OH 45240 (513) 825-3662.

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS

The Friends of Old-time Radio held its 18th Annual Convention from October 21st – 23rd, 1993 at the Holiday Inn – North, Newark, New Jersey. Celebrities present who received awards were: Ed Bryce, George Gould, Elaine Hyman, Florence James, Al Markim, Maxine Marx, Lucile Mason, Jan Merlin, Bob Mott, Carmel Quinn and Frankie Thomas. Other celebrities present were Arthur Anderson, George Ansbro, Barney Beck, Jackson Beck, Warren Bryan, Ward Byron, Lon Clark,, Bob Dryden, Win Elliot, Ray Erlenborn, Lee Erwin, Harry Fleetwood, Fred Foy, Joe Franklin, Earl George, Gladys Holland, Raymond Edward Johnson, Ruth Last, Abby Lewis, Charlotte Manson, Bill Murtough, Charles Osgood, Adele Ronson, Terry Ross, Sy Shaffer, Margot Stevenson, Ezra Stone, Arthur Tracy, Sybil Trent, Frances von Bernhardi, Florence Williams, Betty Winkler and Bill Zuckert. The guests socialized with fans, participated in panels and workshops and re-created 5 radio shows.

The convention began Wednesday evening with complimentary wine and cheese for the overnight guests. About 40 people attended. Thursday, many dealers opened at 9 am. There were 3 afternoon workshops: BBC science fiction with Barry Hill, Penny Fabb and Tom Monroe; a tribute to Carlton E. Morse with Larry and John Gassman; A behind the scenes look at Arthur Godfrey with Lee Erwin, Bill Murtough, Ward Byron, Pat Reilly, Hank Esposito and others; then cocktails and dinner. Fifty-six fans attended during the day. One hundred forty-five fans and guests attended in the evening. An amusing sound effects workshop was held with Barney Beck, Terry Ross, Ray Erlenborn and Bob Mott with the help of Barney's son-in-law, Frank DeFranco. Gary Dennis then entertained us with an hour of songs, including some Al Jolson impersonations.

Friday began at 9:00 with the opening of the dealers room. Fifty-nine dealer tables were active during the convention. Two hundred sixty-one people attended dinner with another 104 in the afternoon. Workshops and panels included the following. Jack French talked about radio heroes from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Jay Wild ran a quiz show. Ray Schnitzer led an all-star panel about private detectives. The Dave Warren Players presented "On a Country Road." Ward Byron and Carmel Quinn gave a talk on variety shows. Raymond Edward Johnson presented "The Cask of Amontillado." Harry Fleetwood, Phyllis Lynd and Charles Osgood talked about radio since 1960. Bob Mott and Jim Harmon then talked about their books. After dinner Ezra Stone, Fred Foy and Joe Franklin were inducted into the National Broadcasters Hall of Fame. The Boogie Woogie Girls and Company E entertained us with songs. Fred Foy and Earl George starred in "Doc Savage" and then "Sherlock Holmes" was re-created starring Frankie Thomas and Earl George

Saturday the panels and workshops included the following: Mitchell Weisberg ran a quiz show; Gary Yoggy led an all-star panel on horror; Lee Munsick led an all-star panel on Arthur Godfrey with Mickey Gravine, Sy Shaffer, Will Jordan, Harold Lieberman, Carmel Quinn and others; "Tom Corbett" was re-created with the original cast including Frankie Thomas, Jan Merlin, Ed Bryce, Al Markim, Jackson Beck and George Gould; Maxine Marx, Lucile Mason, Frances von Bernhardi and Florence James then talked about their jobs as castings directors; John Rayburn and Win Elliot then talked about sports and news.

Saturday's events culminated with cocktails and buffet dinner for 281 people with another 141 coming for the day. After dinner The Dave Warren Players presented excerpts from Allen's Alley and Amos 'n' Andy. "The Mysterious Traveler" was re-created with Bill Zuckert, Lon Clark and others. Awards were presented. The Convention ended with a fun-filled hour of Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts starring Will Jordan who entertained us with his comedy and impressions. Talent present re-creating their original performances were Mickey Gravine, Phyllis Lynd, Sy Shaffer and Eileen DiTullio.

Besides the awards mentioned earlier, they included 3 Allen Rockford Awards presented to Jack French and Larry & John Gassman for their outstanding efforts in keeping radio alive. Special awards were given to Lon Clark and Adele Ronson. Both have attended our convention for several years and have always been willing to help. Donations were given to the Veteran's Bedside Network, The Stephanie Joyce Kahn Foundation, The Episcopal Actors Guild and The Billy Rose Collection of the New York Public Library.

I again want to thank all the guests who were very gracious in granting interviews and giving of their time to be with us.
